'Too Hot To Touch'

Interactive Discussion Sessions

Find out what your peers really think about the most controversial topics in private equity. These brand new sessions will be led by industry experts in a closed-door boardroom setup and will focus on discussing the more difficult topics often avoided at conferences.

This will allow for frank, honest and more fruitful discussion between peers. Uncut!

Topics to be discussed include:

- Is The Growing Popularity Amongst LPs For Infrastructure Investing A Challenge To The Traditional Fund Model?
- Have The BRICs Had Their Day?
- Retention Of Staff And Key Man Clause: What Options Are Open To LPs When The Team Is No Longer The One They Invested In?
- How Can LPs Discern A Stable Team?

Session leaders include:

About Your Sponsors

Principal Sponsor:

Established in 1998, UBS Private Funds Group (UBS PFG) is one of the largest and most successful global placement agents, focused on private equity and infrastructure funds. With a team of dedicated professionals, we bring a focused approach to fundraising, limiting the number of funds simultaneously represented, selecting the highest quality funds in the market and avoiding conflicting mandates. UBS PFG considers this level of focus to be essential in order for a General Partner to succeed in today's market.
